History of the Church.

This Church was organized on the 13th day of February, 1755, with a membership of ten persons, all of whom had been dismissed, for this purpose, from the "First Church" at Gloucester Harbour. The act for the incorporation of the Parish, had received the approval of the Governor, January 1, 1754. It was designated the "Fifth" or "Sandy Bay" Parish of the town of Gloucester.

In the year 1840, the town of Rockport was incorporated; and fifteen years later a Second Congregational Church was formed in the town; so that we are now known as the "First Congregational Church of Rockport, Mass."

The first pastor of the church, the Rev. Ebenezer Cleveland, was ordained in December, 1755. ~~The records of the church during the years immediately following his ordination are lost. But a~~ A good degree of prosperity ~~is known to have~~ attended ~~the new enterprise~~ his labors, until the breaking out of the Revolutionary War, twenty years afterwards.

Then dark days came for the little church at "Sandy Bay." The pastor joined the American army as a chaplain, and almost every male member of the parish took some part in the struggle for independence, serving either on the land or on the sea. When the pastor returned from his service in the army, he found his old parish so desolated by the ravages of war,—so many men had fallen in battle, died on board prison-ships, or perished at sea,—that the few who remained were no longer able to give him an adequate support. He retained his connection with the church as its pastor until his death, July 4, 1805, but much of his time was necessarily spent in other fields of labor.

On the 30th of October, 1805, the Rev. David Jewett, then a young man of thirty, was ordained pastor of the church. His own account of the state of affairs is found in a few words with which he prefaced the record-book of church members then opened. "The church had become almost extinct, previous to the settlement of a pastor, Oct. 30, 1805. They had been like sheep without a shepherd for a long time. For more than twenty-three years they had not met together around the table of the Lord. But thirteen members,—two males and eleven females,—remained to mourn over the desolations of Zion, and the most of these were far advanced in years and stood trembling on the brink of the grave."

The sermon at the ordination of the new minister was preached by Rev. Samuel Worcester, of Salem, Mass.,

under the faithful administration of Mr. Jewett from Jer. III. 15,—"And I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding." It is, perhaps, not too much to say that no better text could have been selected to stand at the beginning of his pastorate of thirty-one years. The pastor's life seems to have been a fulfillment of the promise there made. The church soon regained its former position, and, blessed with several revivals, increased greatly. The old men still love to tell of the "Great Revival" in the winter of 1827 and 1828,—the most powerful in the history of the church. One hundred and forty-one new members were added to the church at this one in-gathering of souls. The whole number of members admitted during Mr. Jewett's ministry was three hundred and five. He found a church of thirteen members, and, when he resigned in 1836, left one of two hundred and fifteen members. Mr. Jewett died at Waltham, July 14, 1841. His remains now rest in the parish burying-ground, in the town where his life-work was performed.

Mr. Jewett was succeeded by the Rev. Wakefield Gale, who was installed on the 4th day of May, 1836. Rev. Wm. M. Rogers of Boston, preached the installation sermon from Mark XVI. 15.

The church was now again blessed with a long and faithful ministry. For twenty-seven years Mr. Gale labored here, and the results of his labors are shown in the many beautiful revival scenes which the church enjoyed. The year 1839 welcomed fifty-eight new members to the communion, and in 1843, eighty-two more united with the church. During the whole pastorate, three hundred and fifty-two were admitted, nearly all of whom joined on profession of their faith.

Mr. Gale was dismissed by council on the 10th of February, 1864.

Rev. William H. Dunning, the fourth pastor of the church, was ordained on the 10th of February, 1864. The sermon was preached by Rev. Nehemiah Adams, D. D., of Boston. Rev. F. V. Tenney of Manchester, made the ordaining prayer.

Mr. Dunning's pastorate was an earnest and successful one, and although short and broken on account of his ill health, the influence of it will be lasting. After a term of three and a half years,—during which fifty new members were added to the church,—he was compelled to resign his charge, and was dismissed on the 6th of September, 1867. He died on the 9th day of February, 1869, at Faribault, Minn., where he had gone in search of health.

The present pastor, Rev. James W. Cooper, was ordained on the 10th of September, 1868. The sermon was by Rev. J. M. Manning, D. D., of Boston; the ordaining prayer by Rev. W. M. Barbour of Peabody. Rev. J. L. Jenkins of Amherst, gave the charge to the pastor, and Rev. J. M. Whiton of Lynn gave the right hand of fellowship.

At this date, May 1, 1870, the membership of the church is three hundred and nine.

The custom of catechising the children of the church and instructing them in the word of God, may be said to date from the very commencement of Mr. Jewett's ministry in 1805.

The Sabbath School, in its present form, was organized on the 23d day of May, 1818, by the choice of Jabez R. Gott as Superintendent. It numbered at its organization about one hundred and fifty members, and during all the years since that time has been in a flourishing condition, —a true nursery of the church. The school has now reached a membership of four hundred and sixteen, with an average attendance of three hundred. about 200 members of pa

Thus through a term of one hundred and fifteen years, this church has been sustained by the hand of a covenant-keeping God. It has had its periods of coldness and decline, but days of refreshing have followed these, and there is surely great cause for thankfulness as we review God's dealings with us, during this more than a century.

Of the five original parish churches of the town of Gloucester, this one alone has preserved a continued existence in the faith of the early settlers. Through the bitter conflict of doctrines, and amid the downfall of so many churches, of which the past century bears mournful record, this church has been graciously preserved. God has raised up men who have been zealous workers in His vineyard, and through His blessing they have left to His people a goodly heritage.

Truly the words of Christ come to each member of this church now, calling for sincere gratitude and inciting to earnest work,—"Other men labored, and ye are entered into their labors."

Doctrines of the Church.

Address

TO CANDIDATES FOR ADMISSION TO THE CHURCH.

You now appear in the presence of Christ and of His people to make profession of your Christian faith. We trust that you have well considered the nature of this transaction; and that you perform it with a deep sense of your own weakness, and your unworthiness to utter these vows unto the living God. Yet you stand here at Christ's bidding. In His strength you do this thing. We thank God upon every remembrance of you, being confident that He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it unto the day of Jesus Christ.

You will now attend to our Declaration of Faith.

ARTICLE I.

We believe that there is one only living and true God,

—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost,—and that these three are the same in essence and in every divine perfection.

Deut. 6: 4. John 4: 24. 1 Cor. 8: 4—6;——John 1: 1—3. John 10; 30, 33. Heb. 1: 8—12;——Acts 5: 3, 4;——Mat. 28: 29.

ARTICLE II.

We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, and that they contain a perfect rule of faith and practice.

2 Tim. 3: 16, 17. 2 Pet. 1: 21. John 14: 16. Ps. 19: 7, 8. Acts 17: 11. 2 Tim. 3; 15. 1 Thess. 2: 13. Rev. 22: 18, 19.

ARTICLE III.

We believe that God has made all things for Himself, and governs them in infinite wisdom according to the counsel of His own will, in perfect consistency with man's free agency and accountability.

Prov. 16: 4. Danl. 4: 35. Col. 1: 16. Rom. 11: 36. Acts 17: 24—28. Rev. 4: 11. Phil. 2: 13;——Ro. 7: 22. Deut. 30: 11—14. Deut. 32: 4. Ps. 89: 14. Eze. 33: 11.

ARTICLE IV.

We believe that man has fallen from the state of innocence in which he was first created, and that in consequence of this fall all men are destitute of holiness and positively inclined to evil until renewed by the Holy Spirit.

Gen. 1: 27, 31. Gen. 3: 3, 6. Eccl. 7: 28. Rom. 5: 12. Rom. 7: 13. Jer. 17: 9. Ps. 14: 2, 3. John 3: 6. Eph. 2: 1—3.

ARTICLE V.

We believe that Christ, the Son of God, became incarnate; that by His sufferings and death He made atonement for the sins of the world; and that on the ground of this atonement all who believe in Him are freely pardoned and justified, and on no other ground can men be saved.

John 1: 14. Phil. 2: 5—9. 1 Tim. 3: 16. Gal. 4: 4, 5. Rom. 5: 6.——Eph. 1: 7. Rom. 3: 25. 1 Pe. 2: 24. Mat. 20: 28. 1 Ti. 1: 15. 1 Ti. 2: 6.——Heb. 7: 25. 1 Jo. 2: 1, 2. Acts 13: 38—41. Acts 4: 12. Gal. 2: 16.

ARTICLE VI.

We believe that although the offers of salvation by Christ are free to all, yet no one will accept of these offers unless moved by the special influences of the Holy Spirit; and that those who are thus led to repentance, having been chosen in Christ before the foundation of the world, will be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

Acts 17: 30. Acts 16: 31. Rev. 22: 17. John 6: 44, 65. 2 Tim. 2: 25, 26—— Acts 13: 48. Ro. 8: 28—30. Eph. 1: 3—6 2 Ti. 1: 9——P's. 37: 23, 24. Pro. 4: 18. John 10: 28, 29. Jer. 32: 40. John 4: 14. 1 Cor. 10: 13. Phil. 1: 6. 1 Pe. 1: 5.

ARTICLE VII.

We believe that it is our duty as Christians to maintain a conscientious and regular attendance upon public, family and secret worship, together with the practice of righteousness and charity, sobriety and temperance, and all those duties which spring from love to God and love to man.

Heb. 10: 25. Acts 1: 13, 14. Acts 2: 1, 42. Mat. 18: 20. John 20: 19. Gen. 18: 19. Josh. 24: 15.——Mat. 6: 6.——2 Pet. 1: 5—9. Lu. 21: 34. Mat. 7: 12. Mark 12: 30, 31. Eph. 4: 31, 32. Phil. 4: 8, 9.

ARTICLE VIII.

We believe that our Lord has established a visible church in the world; that it is the duty of all christians to enter into covenant with it, professing thus their faith in Christ, and observing the divinely appointed ordinances of Baptism and the Lord's Supper; that believers in regular church standing only can consistently partake of the Lord's Supper, and that visible believers and their households only can consistently be admitted to the ordinance of Baptism.

Eph. 2: 19—22. Mat. 16: 18. Mat. 18: 15—17. Acts 2: 47——Mat. 26: 26—30. 1 Cor. 11: 23—25.——Mat. 28: 19. Lu. 18: 15, 16. Acts 2: 39. Acts 16: 15, 33. Gal. 3: 27—29.

ARTICLE IX.

We believe that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust; and a day of general judgment, when all mankind will appear before the bar of Christ, and receive a sentence according to the deeds done in the body; that the wicked will go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into life eternal.

Dan1. 12: 2. John 5: 28, 29——2 Cor. 5: 10. Eccl. 12: 14.——John 3: 3, 36. Heb. 12: 14. Mat. 25: 31—46.

Such are the doctrines held by this church. Do you give them your cordial assent?

BAPTISM.

Those baptised in infancy will give assent to the following:—

You were baptised in infancy, in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. Having obtained the evidence in your hearts of God's fidelity to His covenant, do you now on your part publicly own and acknowledge for yourselves the covenant which was made for you in your infancy by your parents?

Those who have not enjoyed these privileges will present themselves for Baptism.

You will now enter into covenant with God and this church :—

Covenant.

You do now solemnly acknowledge the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost to be your God forever. You avow that you love Him supremely. You cheerfully dedicate yourselves to His service. You gratefully enter into covenant with Him as your most constant and faithful Friend. In humble reliance upon His aid you avow your purpose to seek habitual communion with Him in prayer ; to give diligent attendance to His word and ordinances ; to prize, above all things else, the honor of His kingdom ; and to adorn the doctrine of God, our Saviour, by a blameless life.

Striving thus to be perfect, as He is perfect, you humbly trust in the atoning blood of Christ for the pardon of your sins ; you depend upon the infinite grace of the Holy Spirit for your sanctification ; committing your souls to Him who is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory, with exceeding joy.

You also enter into fraternal covenant with this Church that you will study its peace, its purity, its liberty ; that you will love and watch over its members as brethren ; and that you will so order your life as to do honor to its faith and ordinances by your example.

Do you thus covenant with God and with His people?

[Church rise.] We then, the members of this Church, now enter into solemn Covenant with you. We affectionately welcome you to fellowship with us, in our communion with our Lord. In His name we declare you entitled to all the privileges of His church. We promise to watch over you so long as you continue with us, and faithfully to seek your growth in His likeness, and conformity to His example.

And now, beloved in the Lord, let it be impressed upon your minds that you have entered into obligations the most sacred of your life. You are compassed about with a great cloud of witnesses. These vows will follow you to the bar of God. You will give account of them to Christ at His coming. But He is faithful that calleth you. He speaks to you to-day, saying,—"Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. My grace is sufficient for thee."

Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that Great Shepherd of the Sheep, through the blood of the everlasting Covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do His will, working in you that which is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen!

Baptism of Children.

Believing that God has established His covenant both for the benefit of His people and of their offspring, you do now present this child for Baptism; as the seal of the covenant which you wish to make with your Heavenly Father, and as the sign of the renewing influences of the Holy Spirit which you trust will be granted to the child for its salvation. You engage to bring it up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord,—praying for it, governing and instructing it, setting before it right examples,—with a deep sense of your accountability to God for the manner in which you execute your sacred trust.

Do you thus truly declare and solemnly engage?

III.

Organization of the Church.

Principles & Rules

~~I. Assoc~~ Govermt

~~This church shall be called~~

I The 1st

This Church is Congregational, in its recognition of the fellowship of the Churches; yet independent, in assuming, under Christ,—after advice from others when desired,—the sole responsibility of its own actions.

It will accordingly extend to sister churches, and expect from them, that communion, counsel and aid, which the law of Christ demands, while it controls its own affairs according to its understanding of the word of God.

Ordinances of the Church.

The Lord's Supper shall be administered to this church, ordinarily, on the first Sabbath in January, March, May, July, September and November.

The Communion Table is not ours, but our Lord's, and is sacredly entrusted by Him to our keeping. All persons who have hope of eternal life through the exercise of a saving faith in Christ, and who have professed the same before the world by joining themselves to Christ's church, being providentially with us at the Communion Service, shall be cordially invited to unite with us in celebrating this sacred rite.

The ordinance of Baptism shall be administered to adults at the time of the public profession of their faith; and to children, ordinarily, on the afternoon of Communion Sabbath.

Officers of the Church

The regular officers of this church, in addition to the Pastor and Deacons, shall be a Clerk, a Treasurer, and a Standing Committee.

The Clerk shall be chosen annually by ballot. It shall be his duty to keep a record containing minutes of the doings of the Church, to issue letters of dismission when voted by the Church, and to send letters of inquiry to absent members after the annual Church meeting.

The Treasurer shall be chosen annually by ballot, and shall receive all moneys contributed by the church for benevolent objects, disbursing the same according to the purpose of the contributors, and making report of his doings at the annual meeting.

The Standing Committee shall consist of the Deacons, together with three or more brethren who shall be chosen annually by ballot. It shall be the duty of this committee to assist the Pastor in examining the qualifications of candidates for admission into the Church; to investigate and bring before the Church such cases of discipline as may demand attention; to recommend to the Church objects for benevolent contributions; and to do whatever business may be referred to them by the Church.

The Pastor shall be the standing Moderator at all meetings of the Church or of its Committee.

ANNUAL MEETING.

There shall be an annual meeting of the Church on the Wednesday following the second Sunday in January, for devotional services and the transaction of church business.

The records of the year shall be read by the Clerk of the Church; and the Catalogue of members shall be revised.

At this meeting also the Church shall decide upon the benevolent objects for which regular contributions are to be made during the year, and the Treasurer shall report the amount of moneys contributed during the past year, with the mode of its appropriation,—the report to be entered upon the Church records.

A Clerk, Treasurer, and Standing Committee shall be elected for the ensuing year; and such other business shall be transacted as the Church may deem proper.

ADMISSION OF MEMBERS.

Candidates for admission to this Church on the Profession of their Faith, shall be examined by the Standing Committee, and publicly propounded two weeks previous to their admission; except in special cases when they may be received on shorter notice. Such persons having been received by vote of the Church at any regular meeting shall become members by publicly assenting to the Declaration of Faith and the Covenant.

Persons desiring to be admitted to this Church by Letter from a sister Church, shall present their letter to the Pastor or some member of the Standing Committee, and having been examined by the Committee in respect to personal religion, their Letter shall be read at a regular meeting of the Church, and being received by a vote of the Church they shall be considered members in regular standing.

Members of other churches wishing to commune with this church for more than one year, are expected to bring their Letter, unless there are reasons for delay which the Pastor and Standing Committee shall approve.

Dismission of Members.

Members of this Church desiring letters of dismission and recommendation to other churches, shall have their application stated to the Church, and when their request is granted by vote of the Church, at any regular meeting, the Letter shall be issued by the Clerk. It shall be the duty of any member who wishes to withdraw on any account whatever, to lay his request, with his reason, in a christian spirit before the Church, that they may have opportunity to act on the same; and should any member withdraw without having taken these steps, his conduct shall be considered disorderly, and a proper subject of censure and discipline.

Members of this Church who remove their residence from this place are expected to transfer their relation to some other church, within one year after their removal, unless some special reason exists why they should not do so. Immediately after the annual meeting it shall be the duty of the Clerk to notify such members as have been absent a year, of this rule, and if they disregard the communication they shall be considered as guilty of a breach of fellowship.

Church Discipline

Discipline of Members.

It is indispensable to the purity and well-being of the Church of Christ that gospel discipline always be maintained. Whenever any member of this church knows cause of complaint against another member, christian watchfulness requires that he shall endeavor to have it immediately removed; proceeding according to the rule that Christ has given in Matthew xviii. 15—17. If the Church are at length satisfied of the guilt of the party accused, they may, by vote of the members present at any regularly appointed meeting, cause the offender to be publicly admonished, to be suspended for some definite period from the privileges of the church, or to be excommunicated from its membership. Immoral conduct, renunciation of the articles of faith, or a violation of covenant engagements, are, in the view of this Church, offences deserving censure and discipline.

No charge shall be considered as sustained against a member of the church unless confessed by the accused, or supported by two witnesses.

No member of the Church shall be allowed to speak of the faults of professors before the world or to slander their characters, without being liable to be called to an account for it.

VI. Sunday School as Church

SABBATH SCHOOL.

Sunday School shall be nominated by the pastor of the School and elected

The officers of the Sabbath School, shall be a Superintendent, two Assistant Superintendents, Secretary, Treasurer, and Librarians; all of whom shall be chosen annually by the School. at annual meeting of School

There will be an annual meeting of the Sabbath School, on the day of the regular State Fast, at which meeting the officers for the ensuing year shall be chosen, and a report of the condition of the school, including the state of the treasury and library, shall be presented by the Superintendent. This report shall afterwards be placed on file by the Clerk of the Church.)

While the Church thus places the government of the Sabbath School in its own hands it does not surrender the general oversight of its affairs, but retains the right to act directly in its management, whenever such a course is thought proper.

Departments of Church Work.

Mark 13: 34.—1 Cor. 15: 58. Gal. 6: 10.—Col. 3: 23.

The proper work of every christian is four-fold, viz;—within his own heart,—in the family,—in and through the church,—and, as an individual member of society and of the State. Each christian has some particular work to perform in each of these relationships. The following is a list of a few of the special departments of work connected with the church. It comprises, therefore, duties relating to only one part of the four-fold work in which every christian should be engaged, and is not given as a complete rule of christian life.

1. Attendance—at Public worship and Bible service; Prayer and Fellowship meetings.
2. Assistance in worship—by praying and speaking at devotional meetings; by singing at public and social meetings.
3. Teaching—at Church School; at Branch School, (if such there be.)
4. Giving Invitations—to attend Public Worship and Bible Service; Prayer and Fellowship meetings.
5. Visiting—especially, the aged, the sick, the poor, and the stranger.
6. Missionary Work—contributing money at church collections, &c.; collecting money for missionary purposes; reporting intelligence from Missionary operations.

7. Sewing Society — charitable sewing; and promotion of social intercourse; seeking out and introducing those strangers to each other, &c.

8. Hidden Service—Prayer in private for the Pastor and Church; Mutual encouragement and support as members of Christ's body; Continual effort to lead souls to Christ through our means of grace.

After reading the above it becomes a question with each member of the Church,—how many of these departments am I actually engaged in? and am I doing all that I might do? Many can engage, in some manner, in each one of the eight departments; all can engage in most of them.

Temperance.

In view of the fact that intemperance is one of the greatest of the social evils of the land, threatening the moral and religious life of our community—we do resolve that in the opinion of this church, the use of and traffic in intoxicating drinks as a beverage, are inconsistent with the spirit and requirements of the christian religion. This church therefore feels itself called upon, not only to practise total abstinence as individuals, but also to wage a strenuous and continual warfare against the pernicious evil, wherever we may come in contact with it.

BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY.

One volume allowed at a time, and obtained only by card; to be kept 14 days (or seven days in the case of fiction and juvenile books published within one year) without fine; not to be renewed; to be reclaimed by messenger after 21 days, who will collect 20 cents besides fine of 2 cents a day, including Sundays and holidays; not to be lent out of the borrower's household, and not to be transferred; to be returned at this Hall.

Borrowers finding this book mutilated or unwarrantably defaced, are expected to report it; and also any undue delay in the delivery of books.

 No claim can be established because of the failure of any notice, to or from the Library, through the mail.

The record below must not be made or altered by borrower.
